Glass module

Steel plate module

Nailable board module

New Vita partition builds connective working area and small-size negotiation space by effective utilization of space so as to rapidly convert work pattern for more efficient communication. Through New Vita partition, all kinds of work spaces can be designed effectively.

■ VITA-001

New Vita partition can select various textures of material: cloth cover, steel plate, nailable board, PVC, Glass... Distinctive texture of materials can be mutually matched to display different style with an elegant appearance and practicality.

VITA

Personal work needs relatively independent space to focus on work and thinking.

Cassette-type working condition makes people feel lonely, which cannot be neglected by us. New Vita partition can reasonably allocate area and space, creating relaxation and negotiation area nearby working position through the combination of thickness and thinness. People can take a rest in leisure time and also interact and communicate with co-workers without interrupting others.
